Dear Mr. Dulles,

In answer to your recent note to Mr. Lowell Thomas I am writing today to let you know that Mr. Thomas left for Africa, by way of the Pacific, immediately following his visit with Mr. Hoover at Bohemian Grove the first week in August.

His return home is scheduled for the first week in September. I am sure you will hear from him soon afterward.

I am enclosing a copy of a letter from Kalimpong, India which has just arrived.

Very sincerely yours,

Electra Ward Nickerson

Secretary to Mr. Thomas
